Looking for a private 3-bedroom condo with dockage that feels like home? Coral Harbour Club's distinctive open-sided building design provides windows on multiple exposures--including in the kitchen and in every bedroom and bath--filling the home with natural light and tropical views. Shared community boat slips and an excellent on-site marina make boating part of everyday life, with fuel and ice available on the property. Head out for fishing, diving, sandbar days or exploring the Florida Keys, then return to your peaceful retreat. The kitchen features a classic Tuscan-style renovation with newer appliances, while both baths have been updated in elegant island style.
